

I am opposed to the implementation of BPL. In a portion of the spectrum that is nearly silent in nature, this would create inescapable unending universal exposure of the entire population to that portion of the spectrum with the greatest potential for harm to human health on a level that has never been seen before in all of history. Long term effects on the health of the American People should be determined BEFORE this is implemented.